MUSICIANS PARADISE

Biography

In 2026, the Amersfoort World Jazz Festival presents Musicians Paradise. From Friday 12 June through Sunday 14 June, De Nieuwe Stad in Amersfoort will be entirely dedicated to jazz, featuring three days of more than 80 concerts and around 250 musicians at a stunning industrial festival location.

Musicians Paradise brings jazz music in all its forms together and makes it accessible to a wide audience. At the central festival location De Nieuwe Stad and at Observant, a diverse and largely free program can be discovered. For passionate enthusiasts who wish to further support the festival, there are paid plus concerts with guaranteed seating.

The festival offers a rich palette of music, from major headliners and international top acts to emerging talent and local musicians. Everything comes together in one place, where unique musical encounters and surprising collaborations emerge. Musicians Paradise is truly a celebration and a paradise for everyone.

As the place where music and people come together, Musicians Paradise combines paid and free concerts to make jazz accessible to everyone. Whether you are a seasoned jazz lover or curious about the boundless possibilities of this music, this is where you experience it together with friends and family.

Welcome to Musicians Paradise.
